Catholic Schools Week Arts & Music Festival

News from Jan...

I am so grateful to all of our schools for your contribution in celebrating Catholic Schools Week! We have so much to be proud of and it's wonderful to have the opportunity to be with one another, showing our gratitude.

I greatly appreciate the administrators, teachers, students, parents, and volunteers who made this week a success. None of this would be possible without all of you!

This year's Catholic Schools Week mass was one of the most well attended, which shows your dedication to your ministry and schools - I thank you. Below are a few pictures from our mass and above is a slideshow of the performances from our Arts & Music Festival.

Once again, I thank you for your ministry in Catholic Education and for your participation in Catholic Schools Week. I truly believe last week was one of celebration, worship, gratitude, and
